'72 TIGER

To Jude, (and Myrtle!)
You're pretty cool even if you do get mad
at me very often. Remember All the fun times we had - like picking frog guts off frog skeletons and picking pecans and vacuuming your car and arguing! I guess I'll probably just about almost always remember you and your little ~~green~~ ~~black~~ brown(?) Vega.
Beep! Beep! Beep! Beep! Beep! Beep! Beep! Beep! Beep! Beep! Beep!
Stay cool like you are and we'll always have some good fights.

P.S. Myrtle wouldn't attack me cuz I saved her! (or him :)

Friends always -

Billy McLain Jr.

Jude,
Remember
our summer
'72. (It was the worst yet!) Some people say things get better as you go along.
Well... I don't guess we could get much worse. Things should get better next year. As good as next year was, I'm glad it's over. Love ya (honey!)
Mary Kay (cuz)

Hey Jude,
Take a sad song
& make it better!
But well Jude, I miss Ya, I'll, Eile shit I will
Dey Hey, & your funds
I hoped you
& your funds
& your kind
& your kind
& your kind

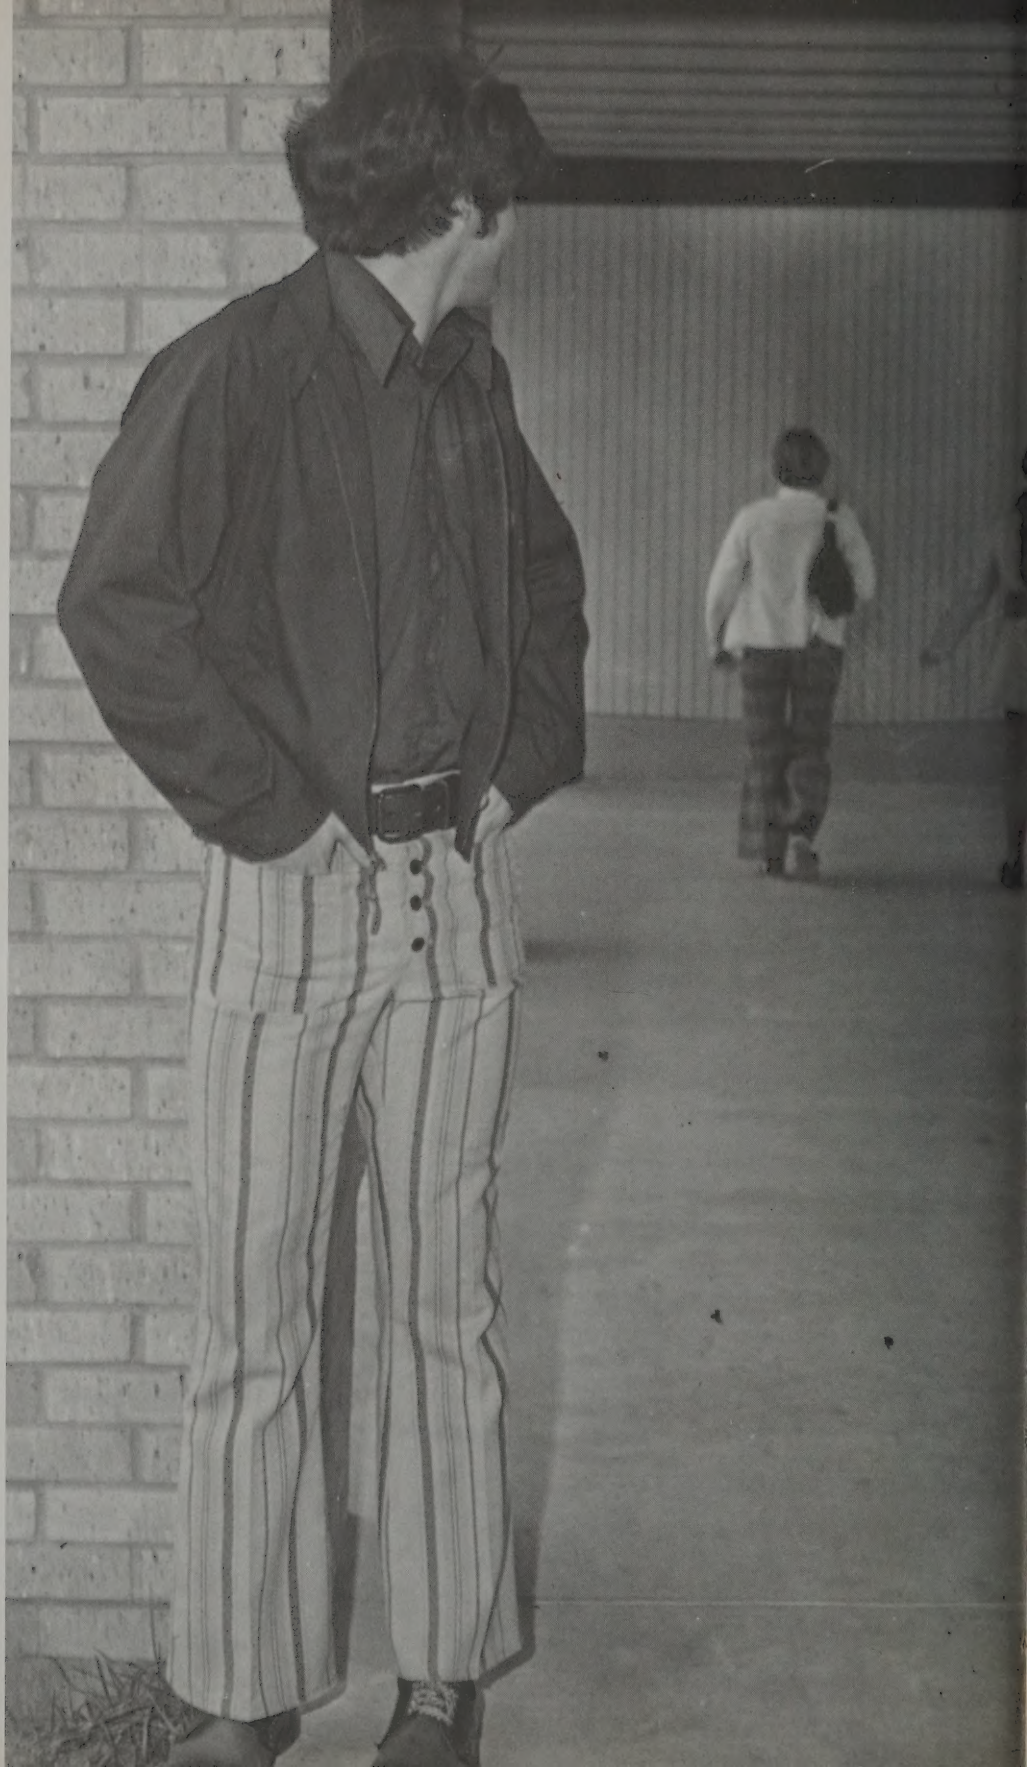
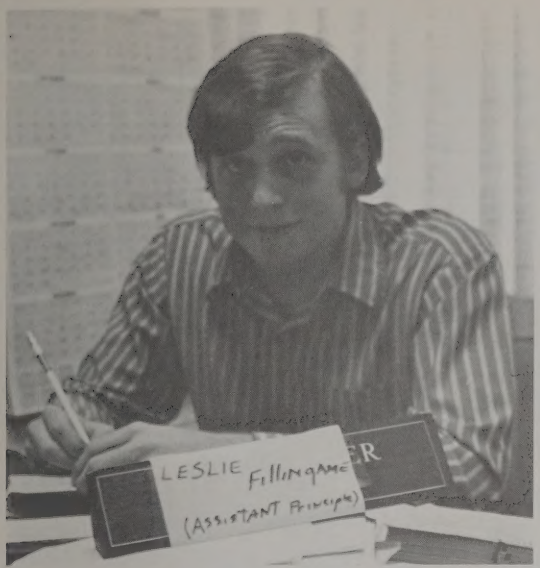
STUDENT LIFE





Remember
when the Seniors took over the school . . .
the one day you didn't mind being sent to the office . . .
the days in Study Hall, the one hour out of school that never seemed to last long enough . . .
seeing your friends in the morning to find out what happened since the last time you saw them, the night before . . .
and the days when you were so tired you would have loved to go home and sleep.

Remember
those days in class . . .
the happy days . . .
the boring days . . .
the days when you were disgusted . . .
the lunch breaks when you got to be with your friends . . .
and the football games when you cheered and cheered or just stood and watched on the side.

Remember
the activities in and around school . . .
the field trips, college night . . .
the rides to the games with the pep squad . . .
the lunchroom . . .
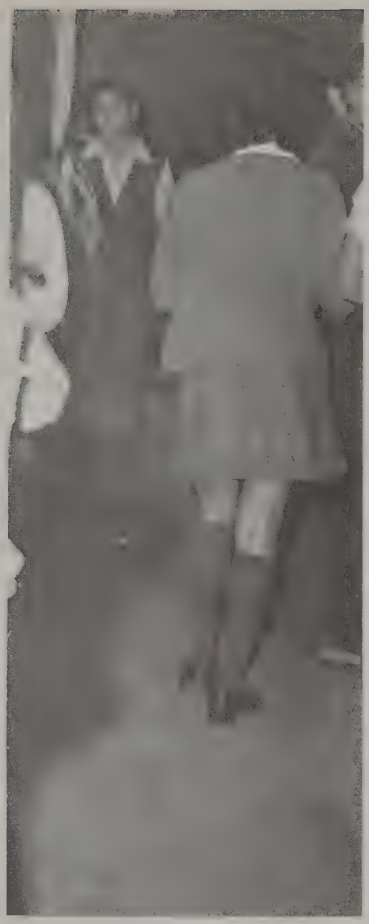
the talks by your locker, or outside on the benches, and the walks down the hall.



Remember the Fridays . . .
planning the weekends . . .
talking about it . . .
and just sitting in class waiting for 3:30 . . .
the Speech classes . . .
the French classes . . .
or just any class . . .
those little things that seem to sneak up on you . . .
Monday mornings . . .
exam week . . .
yearbook deadlines . . .
and the photographer.

Remember all those carefree moments . . .
enjoying life . . .
just sitting back and laughing at the world . . .
those dreaded moments . . .
writing term papers and hoping for a passing grade . . .
visiting the Principal yet not wanting to find out what it's like . . .
and those happy moments . . .
with friends . . .
stopping at Lil' General before and after school . . .
discussing the good times you've had and the many more to come!

SCHOOL BOARD EXPANDS FACILITIES

This year's new school board, headed by Bill Breland, has been responsible for the extension of the Bay St. Louis school system. The opening of the new Waveland school and the clearing off of the land adjacent to our high school shows the attempts of our board to adjust schools and their facilities to accommodate, in a modern fashion, students in their pursuit of learning.

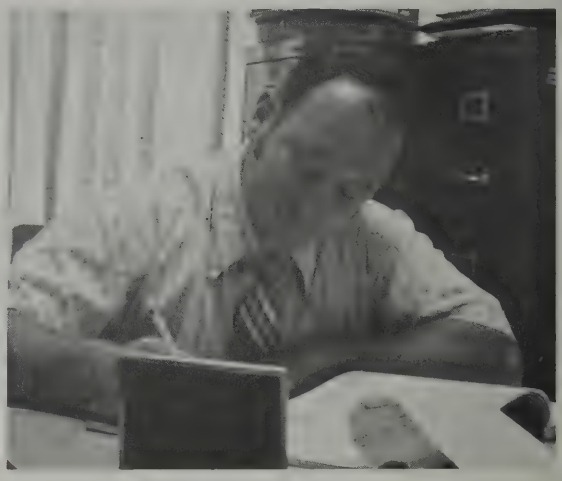
OFFICE ADMINISTERS SCHOOL

Explaining to Mrs. Lagarde why one was late for class, telling Mrs. Beningo why it was impossible to wear a longer skirt, asking for a gum slip and finding out one owes the office thirty minutes, combing the hair off the collar before going in to have Mr. Magee check the length, these are the things memory holds.

"I HAVE THIS PROBLEM . . ."

Remember finding out that it's rather nice to visit the guidance offices . . . discovering who the counselors were, Mr. Ladner, Mr. Carter, Mr. Seymour . . . inquiring about schedules . . . asking for advice about parents, friends, and the future . . . getting applications for college and then some help filling them out . . . the licks and the lectures . . . or just going to see and talk with a friend in the guidance department.



Remember all those wonderful people that help keep the school running . . . Ernest Alexander, Danny Cain, Ronny Fletcher . . . feed us each day . . . Mrs. Higgins, Zadie Bermond, Val Little, Lillian Blaize, Mae LaFrance, Magaret LaFontaine, Eunice Crudden . . . keep the school nice and clean . . . Rupert and Estella Sellers, Peter Mosely . . . check to make sure the students are in good health . . . Joyce Seeger.

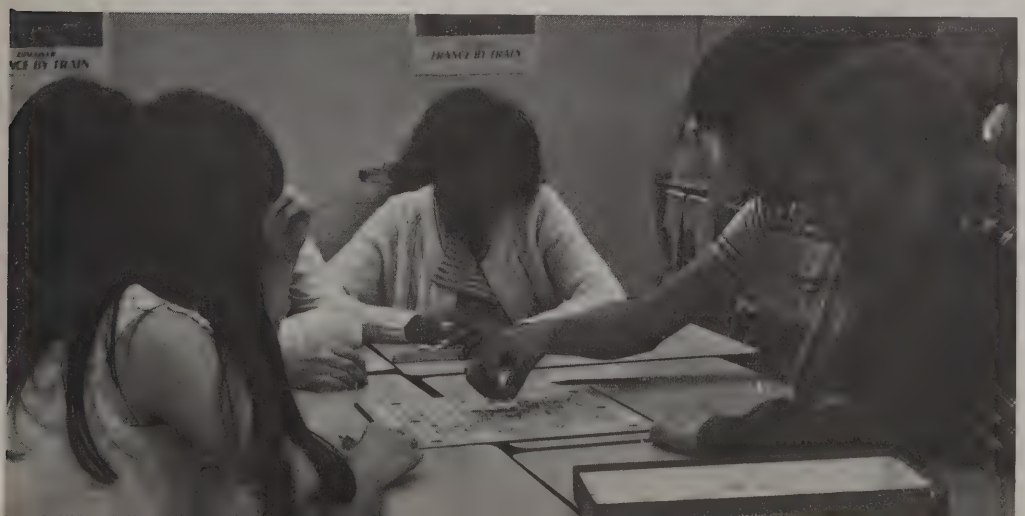
MAINTENANCE, HEALTH, AND FOOD!!!

SCIENCE INTRIGUES STUDENTS

Remember Physics class . . . working with slide rulers that refused to slide . . . listening to Mr. Johnson play the harmonica . . . waiting for the absentee each morning . . . The Science Fairs . . . looking for a project the night before its due . . . the shock when you win a ribbon even if its just an Honorable Mention . . . Mike Carver winning first place in the Physics division in State competition . . . Chemistry class . . . the first day when you listened to Mr. Johnson's stories of "past accidents" . . . the day when you got to add your own story . . . Butyric Acid . . . the last week in class working with Unknowns?? . . . The Assembly when we listened to the guest speaker from NASA . . . learning about rockets and liquid oxygen . . . Biology . . . Dissecting those worms and frogs and pigs . . . Physical Science . . . developing your own pictures . . . learning all those formulas for Specific Heat . . . and learning a little bit about everything . . .

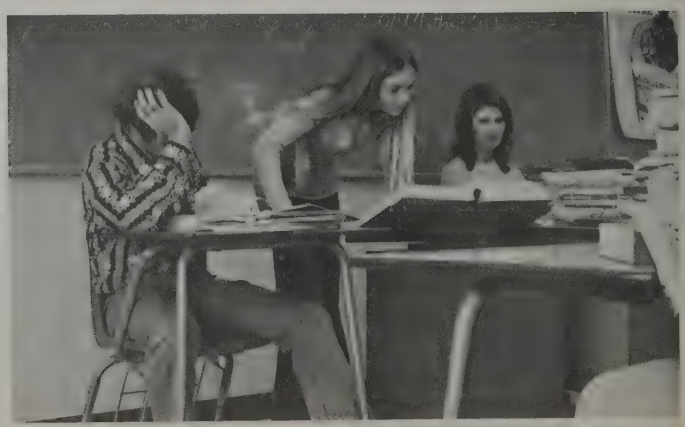
"PARLEZ-VOUS ESPANOL?"

Remember Mme. DeMontluzin and Sra. Ladner . . . Learning the tenses of verbs . . . discovering how your name is pronounced in that strange language . . . New Orleans . . . the Cabildo and Jackson Square . . . scrabble in Spanish class on Fridays . . . and those fantastic French projects.



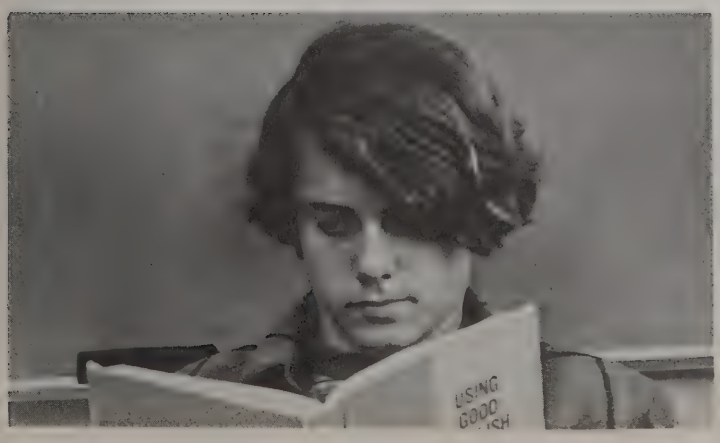
ENGLISH DEPARTMENT VARIES APPROACH

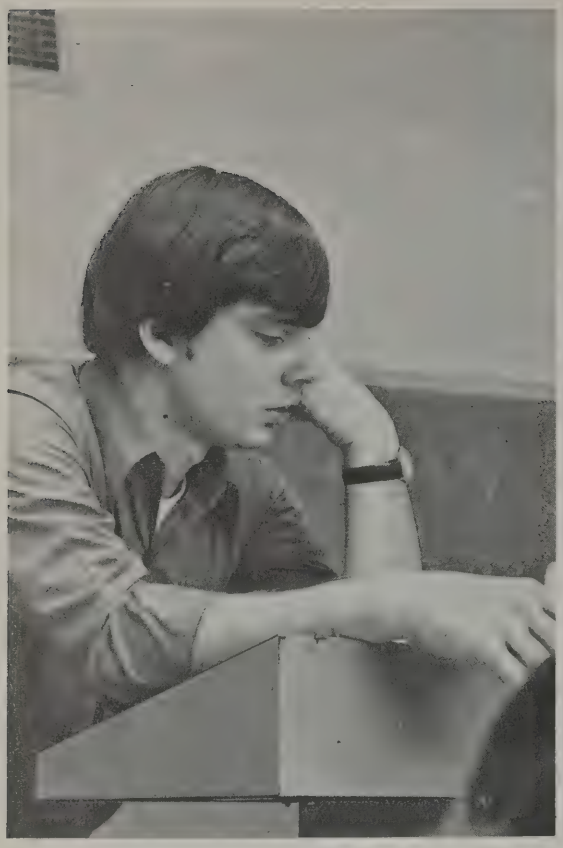
As communications is the most important part of today's society, the English Department of Bay Senior High strives to meet each individual students needs by offering excellent college preparatory courses.

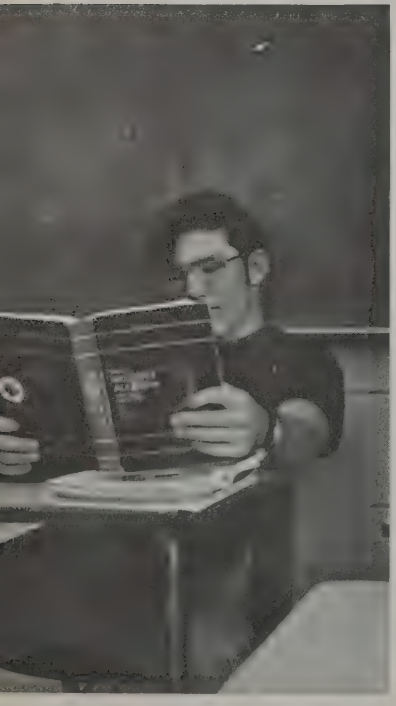


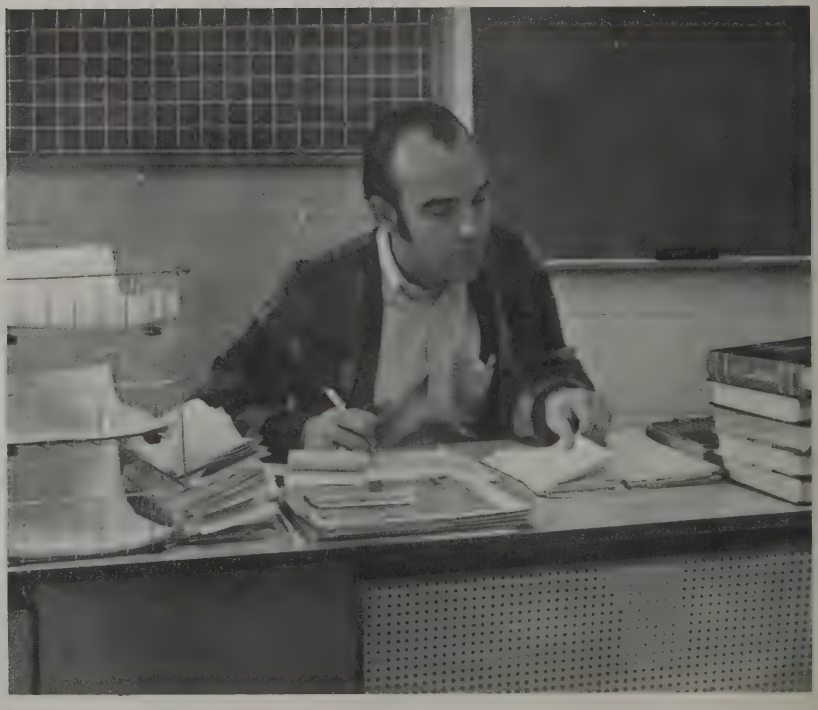
Under the direction of Miss Cynda Gibbon, Miss Becky Aguzin, Mrs. Venda Mae Ladner, Mrs. Merle Little, and Mr. Douglas McQueen, students are introduced to the various forms of literature and the necessary fundamentals of grammer through English 10, 11, 12, and also Honors English, a must for the college bound student.

Courses are also offered in Basic Speech, Journalism, and practical work experience on the school newspaper, literary magazine and yearbook publication.









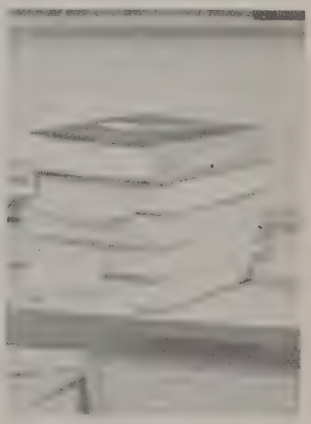
PUPILS PURSUE MATH STUDIES

How do I know if 385981 is a prime . . . that graph was supposed to be a straight line . . . well, it's only a little crooked?

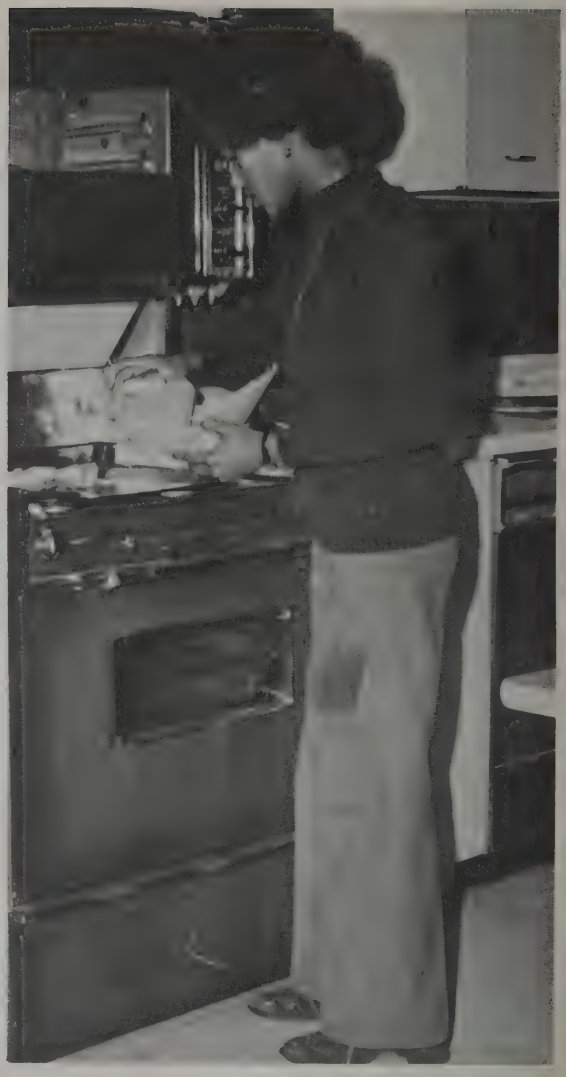
Mr. Kenneth Harder teaches courses in Algebra I and II and in Senior Math. Algebra I and II deal with the properties and relations of numbers and the generalization and extension of arithmetic.

Fundamental Math I and II courses and Unified Geometry are taught by Mr. Ken Bourgeois. These courses are designed to prepare students for the practical application of mathematics and to deal with problems concerning solid and plane shapes.

A goal of the teachers in the Mathematics Department is to develop an understanding and love of the intrinsic beauty of math as a pure and man-made science.



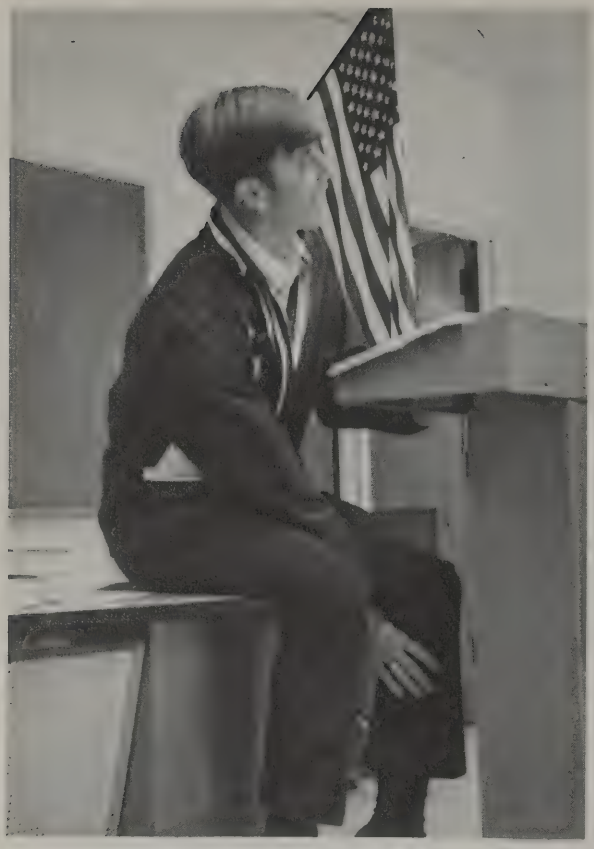
HOME ECONOMICS PREPARES STUDENTS FOR LATER LIFE

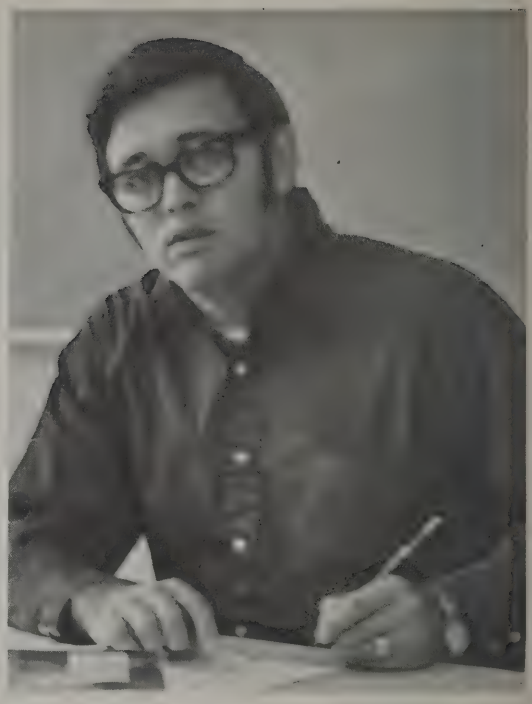


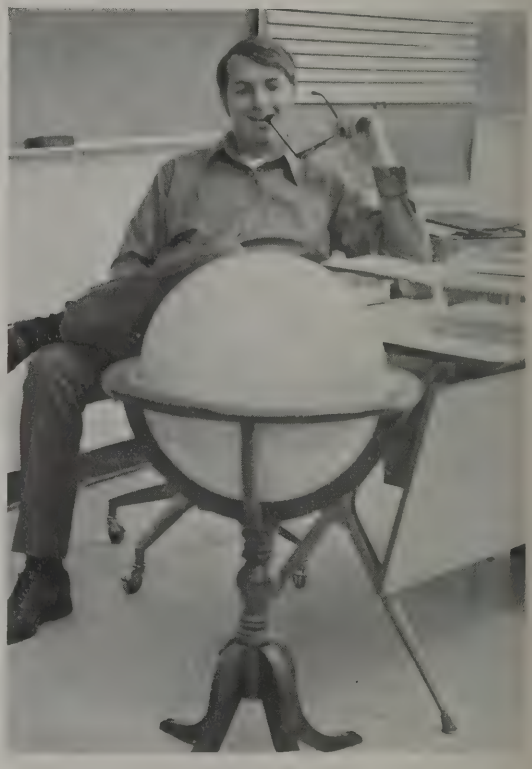
Heading the many activities of this year's homemaking department are Mrs. Juanita Erwin and Mrs. Katherine Pair. Numerous branches of the Home Economics Department are Foods, Clothing, Housing, Child Developement, Family Living, and Home Economics II. These courses are designed to prepare the student for his important responsibilities to his family not only as a student, but as a member of society.

The student gains experience not only in class participation, but in such varied activities as FHA, Garden Club, Nursery, Teacher's Appreciation Week, School Board Dinner, and Faculty Christmas Party.

Students gained valuable knowledge through a speaker enrichment program designed to better inform students of the various aspects of everyday living.







STUDENTS STUDY SOCIAL CHANGES

The Social Science Department instills in its students the principles of Democracy and appreciation of our American heritage. The faculty comprises Mr. Woods Alliston, Mr. Cecil Powell, and Mr. Bob Meyers.

WORLD HISTORY involves the contribution of prehistoric man through his westward expansion, and his age of exploration in the New World. U. S. HISTORY presents the political, social, and economic development of the United States. AMERICAN GOVERNMENT is a study of the Constitution with practical application. ECONOMICS deals with problems in American economy.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT RANKS HIGH

Bay High's Business Department staffed by Mrs. Freda Cameron and Mrs. Mary Castleberry, has many objectives in its curriculum. This course offers many opportunities to the student in different branches. Anyone interested in secretarial or business careers may obtain valuable and efficient skills in Typing I and II, Shorthand, and Bookkeeping. Clerical Office Practice prepares a future secretary for any type of office situation which may include filing, handling legal documents, and business letters, and performing various jobs a secretary encounters. Business English is primarily composed of the mechanics of English which a secretary would need to know for effective secretarial skills.

"DON'T RUN OVER THE BIRDIE!"

Remember all those cold mornings . . . dressing out . . . Miss Delong . . . badminton and flag football . . . and running laps.

Remember knocking over posts . . . the simulator . . . passing the test . . . the big day . . . the look on the patrolman's face . . . the look on your face . . . the license in your hand.

YOUTHS WORK TOWARDS FUTURE

Remember the first day of class . . . all that drawing equipment . . . learning about name plates . . . practicing your printing, again . . . freehand sketchings . . . Mr. Ladner making us take those tests over and over again . . . the bulletin board contest . . . our first place a and our five points . . . designing our own house and handing it in the last day.

Remember meeting Mr. Brooks for the first time . . . looking for a job and trying to keep it . . . writing those manuals . . . the DECA convention . . . placing at state convention . . . the Vocational Education Banquet . . . the Wheel Inn . . . you and your employer.

"MAKE YOUR OWN KIND OF MUSIC"

Remember all those afternoons marching on the field . . . Mrs. Howard . . . Mr. Evans . . . football games . . . choral concerts . . . sixth period . . . a feeling of accomplishment and pride.

Remember all those people that were absent from school because of their intelligence?

Amy Hartnett and the Mississippi Betty Crocker Award . . . all those symposiums . . .

Mike Carver and his first place science project in Physics at the State Science Fair, and the Navy Award . . .

Ronnie Magee for his trip to North Carolina to attend a symposium about the humanities and science . . . and Leslie Fillingame as Star Student and as a district winner in the "Ability Counts" contest.

TWO OUTSTANDING STUDENTS ELECTED TO BAY HIGH'S HALL OF FAME

Each year the Tiger yearbook staff asks the faculty to select two students who they feel are outstanding to Bay Senior High's Hall of Fame. The students elected are required not only to have a reasonably good scholastic record, they must support school activities and be responsible citizens of the community in which they live. The two Bay High students who merited this highest honor this year are Judy Dahn and Leslie Fillingame.

JUNIORS SPARK INTRAMURAL SPORTS

The Junior class showed lots of school spirit by participating in the class intramurals. We bring with us many memories and hopes. Memories of the years past and hopes for the years to come.

We remember what we have achieved and the knowlege we have gained in our Junior year. We remember pep rallies, assemblies, detention hall, research papers, science projects, and cramming for exams. We remember our efforts to raise money for the Junior-Senior prom, and the feeling of accomplishment when we reached our goal. We remember ordering our class rings.

As we look back and remember we anticipate next year and all the years to come.

JUNIOR GIRLS SELL STATIONERY

"Stationery, I hate you!" has been a familiar by junior girls.

If you haven't been accosted by an eager Junior selling boxes of "fantastic long lasting" stationery or "indestructible, last-a-lifetime" metal social security cards or "lowest price ever" magazine subscriptions, you obviously haven't been at Bay Sr. High very long. These fund raising projects fell into full swing after the first of the year, and the results produced one of the most enjoyable activities of the 71-72 school year - THE SENIOR PROM.

SOPHOMORES WIN SPIRIT STICK

A clamor of noise, shrieks and hollers, and the sophomores win again! The spirit stick is lost in the grasping hands of the tenth graders. 1972 is the first year in ages that the sophomores have received recognition for the use of their voices. This isn't the only abrupt change these students have noticed in the Senior High. No more kid stuff. Rules were made to be kept, and teachers back up the rules.

A merit system also surprised the wide-eyed underclassmen, who are rewarded for mere tasks of staying out of trouble . . . and once again they are on the bottom of the list for privileges.

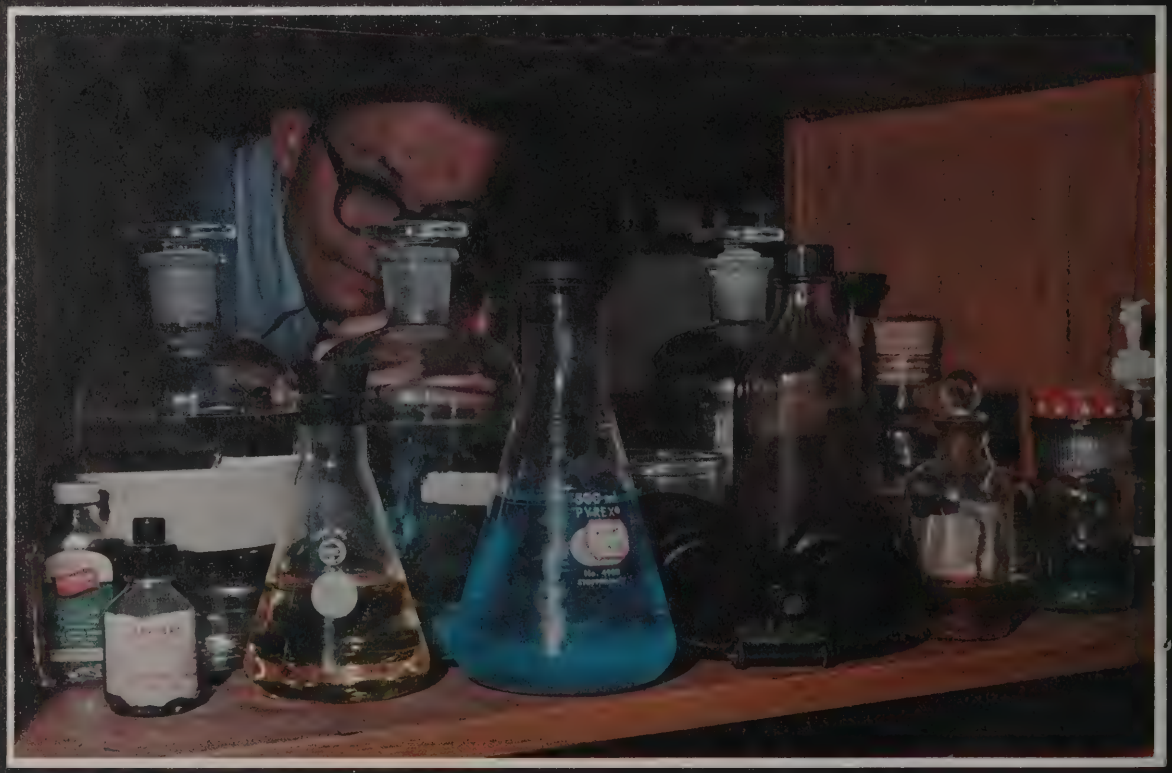
As we remember this past year, we think of your constant efforts and help that have made this school outstanding in science. You have reminded us many times, and we agree with you, "Russia fears our scientist, not our football players." For these reasons, we feel that you are very deserving of this dedication.



Another day,
with Uncle T. J.;

That's okay,
but do it my way;

Thinking, seeing,

Quotes on test,
no time for rest;

Last names,
always the same;

Our memories are dear,
when remembering this year.

CLASS OFFICERS PLAN ACTIVITIES

For the seniors it's a hectic but happy year. Choosing Sr. motto, colors, and flower; Sr. Play, Graduation, and the election of Sr. class officers. The 1972 Sr. class officers are L. to R.: Anne Lynch - treasurer, Sharon McKenna - president, Leslie Fillingame - vice-president, and Mimi Vaughan - secretary.

The planning of a Jr.-Sr. Prom involves much time and work. Selling magazines and stationery are just a few of the money-raising projects the Jr. class undertakes. These activities are headed by: L. to R.: Laurin Allain - vice-president, Layne Wendling - secretary, Lauren Turcotte - treasurer, and Robin Lizana - president.

The excitement of a different school - the change from an upperclassmen to a lowerclassman - all this and more add to a sophomore year. The sophomore class officers help their fellow classmates adjust to a different environment. They are, clockwise: Cheryl Goetz - secretary, Chrissy Lozana - treasurer, Tricia Robinson - vice-president, and Emily Mollere - president.

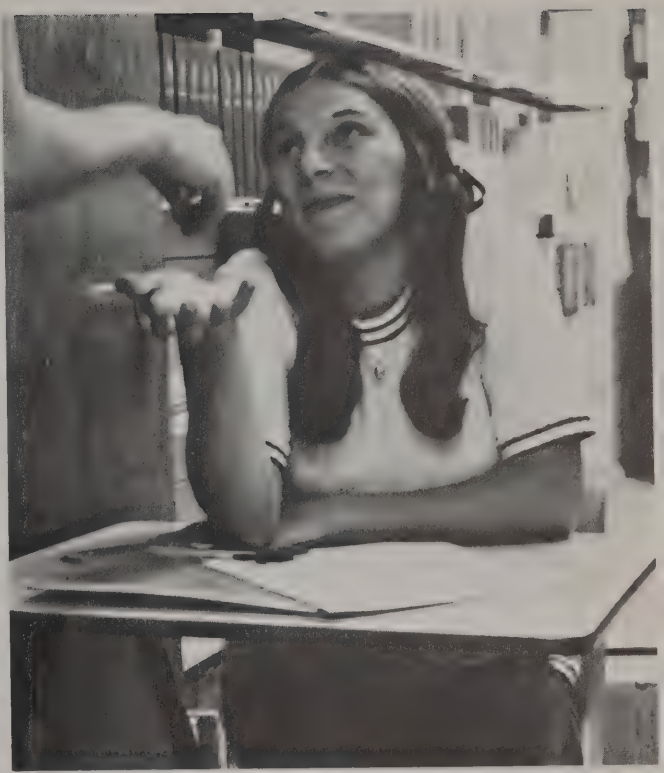
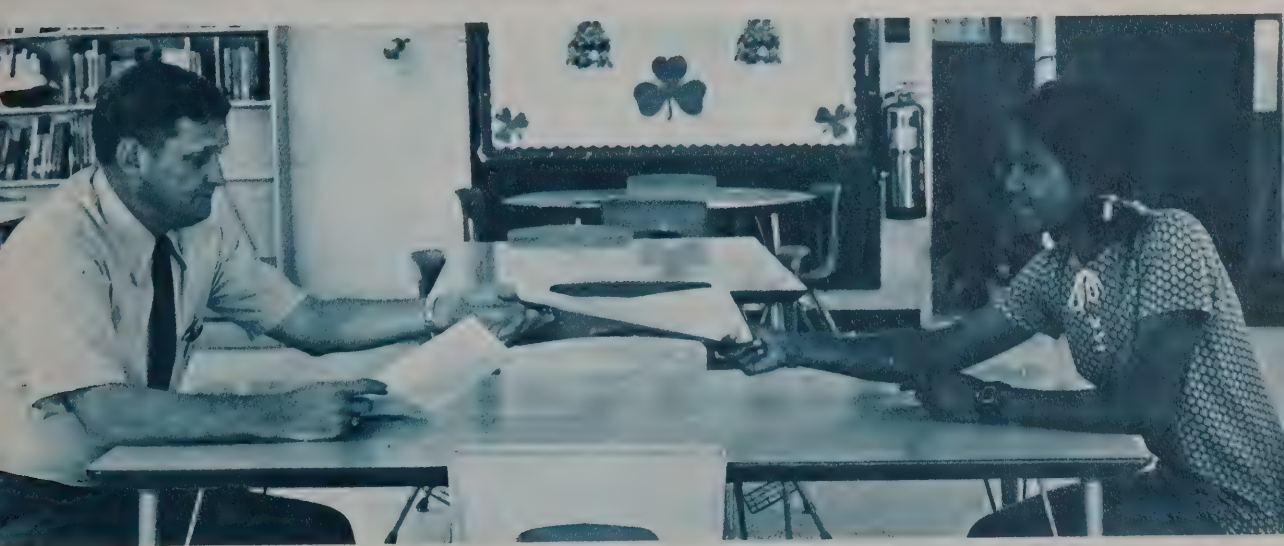
NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Scholarship, leadership, service, and achievement are the four traits one must have to become a member of the National Honor Society.

The club has many activities. It participates in acting as tutors, it reorganizes the local constitution, and sponsors a college night. Also this year our club, with Pass Christian High School's NHS, sponsored the annual faculty basketball game, where members worked in the concession stand and collected tickets at the door.





STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council has had a very rewarding year. Its major activities are to create privileges for students, to present the opinion of the Student Body to the Administration, and also to serve as a governing body to help establish school rules. With much effort, the Student Council is able to bridge the gap between the student and the teacher. One of the many services is to operate the bookstore.

The officers of the 1971-1972 Student Council are President, Judy Dahn; Vice-President, Laurin Allain; Secretary, Lisa White; Treasurer, Sandra Henley.

GARDEN CLUB SPONSORS MANY EVENTS

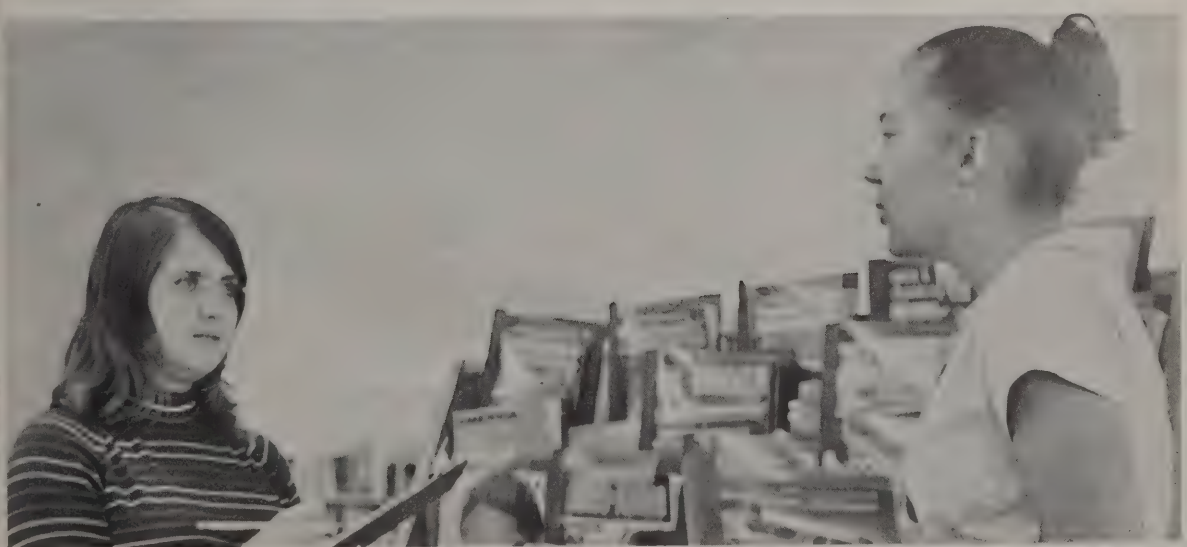
Remember the Christmas and Spring flower shows? Remember, when Arbor Day was celebrated with the dedication of a red bud tree to Mrs. Pair? The group's monthly meetings were spiced with guest speakers on topics from wildlife conservation to Japanese flower arranging. For the first time the Garden Club represented Bay High at the Mississippi Gulf Coast Pilgrimage. Remember Mrs. Erwin flitting around to make everything just so? Most of all remember the satisfaction of knowing that this year's work was well done.

LIBRARY CLUB COMPLETES TWO PROJECTS

Could you imagine walking down the hall without passing that one ray of sunshine - the library display? This display is changed once a month using an educational theme thats fits the activities for that month, and a monthly historical sheet is also made.

The 30 members of the library club are those friendly girls and boys behind the counter that hand you magazines and check out books for you.

The club this year has planned two projects, the purchase of a nativity scene and co-sponsorship of the May Teacher Appreciation Week.



JOURNALISM STUDENTS PUBLISH NEWSPAPER

Remember the "Loser of the Month" and the censored Mardi Gras Edition?? Getting the final copy approved or rejected . . . Deadlines! Interviews! Headlines! Pictures! All these problems and more face the "Student Prints" staff. The staff works hard to publish five issues each year. Club activities, sports, and special features are included in the newspaper. Remember the time you saw YOUR name in print?

PRESSING DEADLINES HAUNT YEARBOOK STAFF

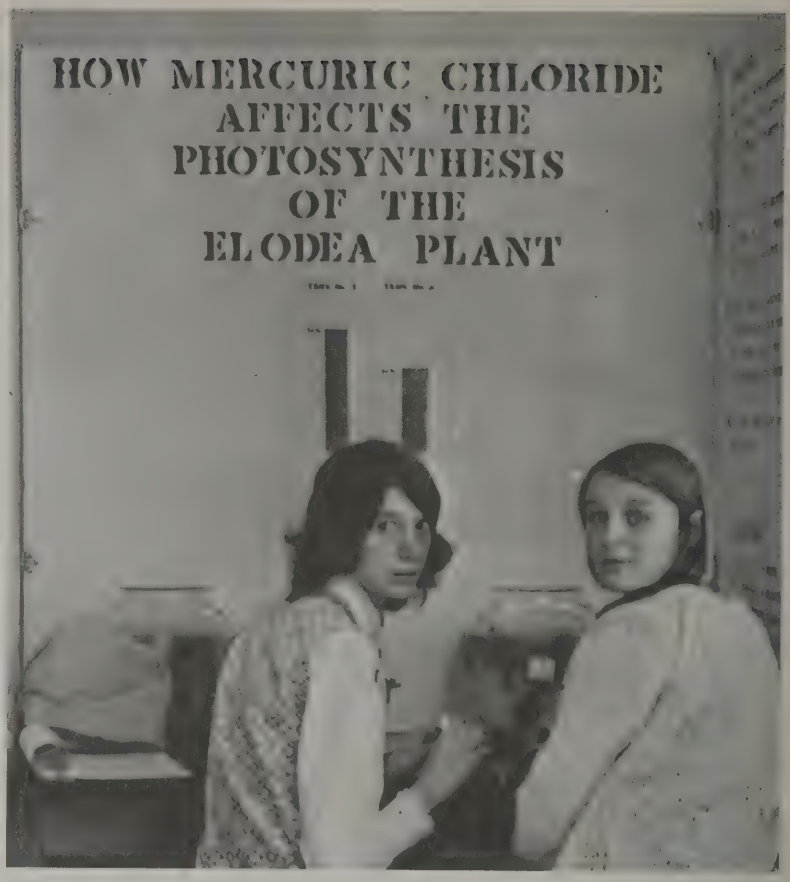
Remember all those brightly colored posters in the hall that always seemed to say "Yearbook '72?" Remember the funny skit at the pep rally and the time you voted for favorites? But have you ever seen an anguished face say, "The roll of film turned out blank," or "Nobody liked my idea?" Have you seen a good friend fall asleep in class, saying, "I fooled with those layouts until MIDNIGHT?" If you have, then somewhere you have seen a yearbook staffer. There are sophomores and a new advisor Miss Becky Aguzin who have helped to give the yearbook a new look.

NEW LITERARY FORMAT

"Why Peanut Butter Sticks to the Roof of Your Mouth" is the topic for this year's essay contest. Unusual photographs, original short stories, "day-living" poetry, and the winning essay will make up the LITERAUS EXODIUS. Another addition is "Senior Thoughts." The Literary Club is also responsible for the weekly article "Your Public Schools" in the "Sea Coast Echo."

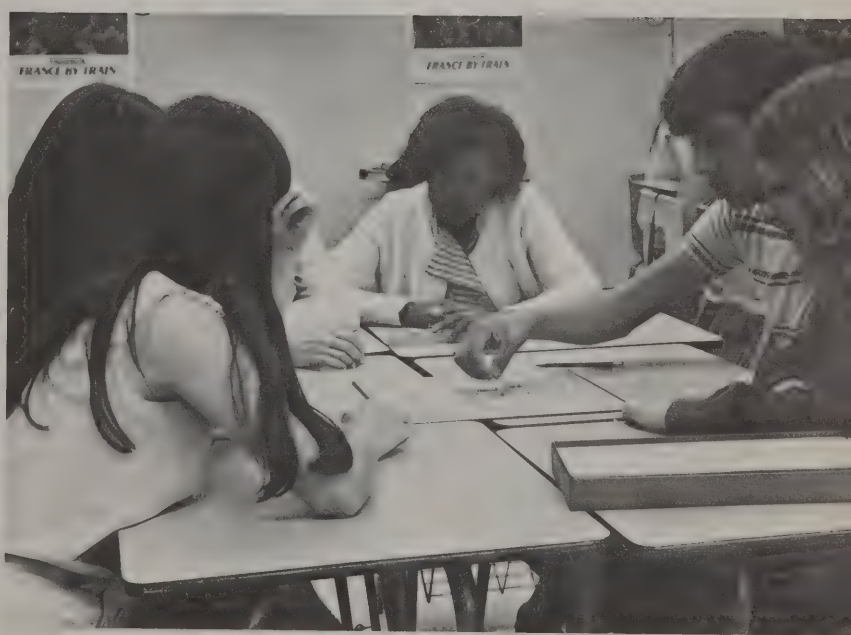
SCIENCE INTEREST SPURRED BY SCIENCE CLUB

Remember . . . the trips, science fairs, and CONFUSION! Who could forget the confusion and FUN? The Science Club sponsored four science fairs; and ribbons, medals, and judges had to be found. On the BIG DAY almost 300 projects were set up and judged. A trip to the Gulf Coast Research Lab added to the fun.

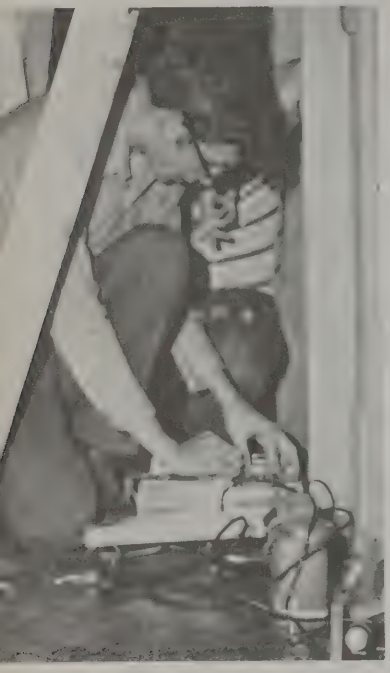


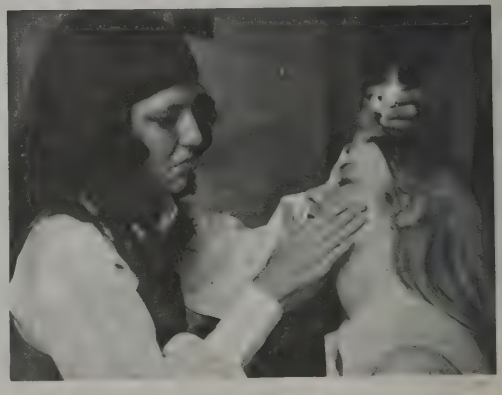
FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUBS PARTICIPATE IN MANY ACTIVITIES

Remember . . . the French Quarter - Tujague's, the Cabildo, Musee Conti, and the Presbyter? Trips to the French Quarter, parties after the fashion of French and Spanish customs, plays, and skits kept both the Spanish and French Clubs busy this year.



SENIOR PLAY





This years senior play OUR GIRLS a comedy by Conrad Seiler was described as "Extraordinary."
The Cast was as follows:
Anut Jesse - Mimi Vaughan
Mrs. Lovejoy - Melissa Lagarde
Mr. Lovejoy - Richard Stamm
Vivian Lovejoy - Ben Ferrell
Jesse Lovejoy - Mike Peterson
Francis Lovejoy - Gary Yarborough
Mrs. Wattles - Ann Miller
Phyllis Wattles - Denise Parsons
Chester Wattles - Rusty Chapman
Hulda - Cheryl McCullough
Expressman - George Goodwin
Student Director - Sharon McKenna
Faculty Director - Douglas McQueen

The Future Homemakers of America has sponsored this year a party for the football players, a guest speaker from the health department, and a dinner for the FHA members in foods class.

BAND RATES EXCELLENT'

Remember when the Bay High Tiger Band was rated "excellent" at this year's Gulfport Tri-State Marching Contest, played in Tulane University's homecoming parade, and hosted the New Orleans Symphony's March Concert? The parent's booster club raised money for the Band's Jackson Contest trip.

CHORUS READIES FOR TWO MAJOR CONCERTS

Take sixty voices, plus the direction of Mrs. Mary Howard, add great cooperation and a lot of hard work, and there you have the Bay Senior High Chorus. Highlights of this year's activities include a Christmas concert, participation at District Choral Festival, and a spring concert consisting of well-known Broadway hits.

JUNIORS, SENIORS, ENJOY PROM

Remember making all those octopuses . . . looking for a date, three days or three weeks before . . . ordering corsages . . . May 5, 1972 . . . Sheraton Motor Inn . . . "Way Down Below the Ocean" . . . going out to eat in formals . . . dancing with your date, the teachers, other people's dates . . . the parties . . . and finally getting home before sunrise!

MIXED DOUBLES SPARK 1972 TENNIS ACTION

This year's tennis team saw many hours of hot, sweaty practice before competition revealed their skills. Many a sunburned face was seen but was not the result of sunbathing. There were times when there was not much around but a tennis ball can to drink from, nor much time in study hall to put hems in tennis duds. The work paid off with a Division win in mixed doubles, and multiple awards on honors day.

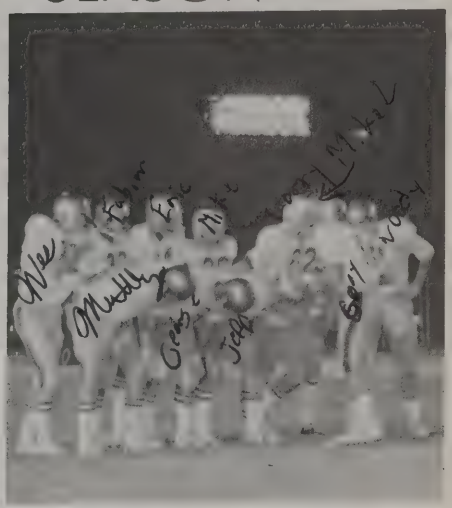
FOOTBALL STARTS SPORTS SEASON



A thunder of roaring voices is heard as the Tiger team rushes onto the field to meet their opponents. Both the team and the fans are anxiously awaiting the kickoff. By the traditional music of the band, one can tell that the Tigers have once again made a first down.

ACTION HIGHLIGHTS FOOTBALL SEASON

As the ball is put into play, the Tiger fullback picks up crucial short yardage. Time after time the Tiger backs pound into the line. Suddenly the Tiger quarterback keeps the ball for what seems an eternity, he looks down field, then he hurls the ball down field into the waiting arms of the speeding tight end. The tight end eludes two would be tacklers and rambles into the end zone.

CHEERLEADERS AND PEP SQUAD SPARK SPIRIT

Fall activities prompted cheerleaders and pep squad to swing into action during one of the most exciting years in the history of BHS. The cheerleaders attended the summer camp at Ole Miss and received many awards. Action comes with this group and they aid their part to make the action swing.

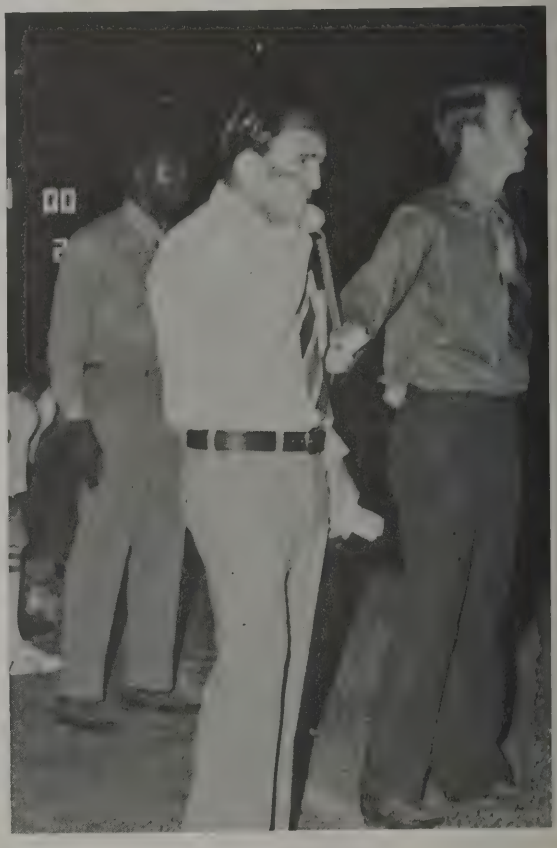
The pep squad girls were a welcome addition to BHS this year. To this group falls the duty of half-time and time-out entertainment, and a more-than-required amount of spirit.

HOMECOMING IS EXCITING

Decorated lockers throughout the school, our favorite rival, Stanislaus, a charging Tiger, stands filled with excited fans, and enthusiastic cheerleaders marked this year's homecoming. Amid all the color and gaiety queen Barbara White beamed as she and her homecoming court were introduced to the crowd. Patricia Robinson and Robin Lizana represented the sophomore and junior classes, respectively, while Mimi Vaughan was the senior maid. The Tigers crushed the Rock-A-Chaws 42-6.

TIGERS WIN AGAIN

After the score, the line drives the opposing runners back. Forced to take to the air, the opposing quarterback can only watch in frustration as his passes are repeatedly deflected. The outcome is never in doubt; the Tigers win again.



TIGERS WIN JAYCEE BOWL

Superb is the key word that might best describe the Tiger football team this season. With a record of 10 wins and one loss, the team won the coveted Gulf Coast Conference title and went on to defeat Chalmette High School of Louisiana 7-0 for the title of Jaycee Bowl Champions. In addition to the imposing trophy, team members were presented with watches by the Jaycees to commemorate their victory.

GIRLS COP HONORS IN PLAYOFFS

Remember all those trophies in the office? Well, most of them were probably won by the 18 members of the girls' basketball team. Coach Willie Bradley, Miss Florence Delong, and four managers have guided the team to a successful seasonal win-loss record of 23-6.

The team amassed three trophies, placing second in Bay High's tournament, second in Gulf Coast Conference, and second in District play. The team also participated in the South Mississippi playoffs.

Schewander Bell was named All-Tournament player in Harrison Central's Tournament, Robin Lizana in Hancock North Central's, and Schewander, Shellereen, and Kim Bell were named All-Tournament Team players at District. Schewander and Shellereen were All-Conference players.

BASKETBALL PROVES DIFFICULT WORK

Remember that first hectic game against North Central and those difficult times with the Rock-a-Chaws from St. Stanislaus? This year's 15 basketball team members can remember these struggles and our many more, as well as the hours of practice that went into making a good season.

Under the direction of Coach James Pair, with expert management by Mac Metzer, the team finished with a 13-14 win-loss record for the season. Though the times were not always happy, most will agree that this has been a season well worth remembering.

Your Future

is an important part of our plans

if your plans include living in Coast Electric-land! Together we can work to utilize its natural resources to best advantage while protecting the land, water, and air, the flora and fauna, from abuse and destruction.

Today we are planning and building so that there will always be sufficient electric energy to work for you in homes, business, and industry.

By helping to develop our area with the prime objective being a stable economy, opportunities will increase in all fields of endeavor. In such an environment success can be realized by diligent application of accumulated knowledge acquired during your years of formal education.
